PRESS RELEASE

LD12 Democratic District First to File its Slate

The Secretary of State Elections Office just confirmed that Legislative District 12 (LD12) was the first to file its slate of Democratic candidates for the Arizona legislature, have the petitions verified, and to fulfill all clean election requirements. LD12 candidates first to file in Arizona are Angela Cotera for State Senate and Eve Nuñez and Dave Scanlon for State Representative positions.

“This multiple milestone is significant because LD12 did not recruit any Democratic candidates during the 2006 elections, thus ensuring Republican candidate victories” said Anna Huberman, LD12 District Chair. “Our precinct committeepersons worked hard to recruit viable and qualified candidates. Not only did we reach our goal to ensure voters have a choice for Democratic Party representation for LD12, but are the first in the state of Arizona to do so.”

To learn more about the LD12 Democratic Party candidates, voters can access the LD12 website at www.LD12Dems.org, or call Anna Huberman at (623) 877-6380 for general information prior to the 2008 fall elections.”
